AHC’s Mission

The Tacoma/Pierce County Affordable Housing Consortium (AHC) provides community education and advocacy to represent its members in expanding opportunities for nonprofit corporations and others to finance, produce, and manage housing for low-income people.

AHC’s Vision

All residents of Tacoma/Pierce County have access to decent, safe, and affordable housing.

AHC’s Objectives

AHC’s objective is to improve the environment for low-income housing production, including a) enhancing the capacity of affordable housing developers; b) providing an information network for the affordable housing community; and c) educating about affordable housing issues.

AHC’s Values

- Housing is a basic human right.
- The AHC is committed to the provision of decent, safe, affordable housing for all.
- Stable homes are essential to a healthy community.
- Housing costs should not be greater than 30% of household income.
- Affordable Housing is a critical component of economic development.
- Collaboration among communities and development partners – efficiently using resources – is required to preserve and expand housing.
